ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF HUNTERS CREST HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

I, the undersigned, being of full age, for the purpose of organizing a nonprofit corporation under and pursuant to Chapter 317A of the Minnesota Statutes, as amended, do hereby adopt, sign and acknowledge the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this corporation is Hunters Crest Homeowners Association, Inc. 2

ARTICLE II

Purposes and Powers

The purposes and objects of Hunters Crest Homeowners Association, Inc. (the "Association") are to provide for and to administer the operation, management, maintenance and care of Hunters Crest, a residential community (the "Property") to be established, initially, upon certain real property lying and being in the City of Minnetrista, Hennepin County, Minnesota, legally described as set forth on attached Exhibit A, and such additional real property as may subsequently be added to and made a part of the Property, and to undertake the performance of the acts and duties incident to the administration of the operation and management of the Association in accordance with the terms, provisions, conditions and authorizations as contained in these Articles of Incorporation and which may be contained in the Declaration of Covenants for Hunters Crest (the "Declaration"), which will be filed in the Office of the County Recorder for Hennepin County, Minnesota; and to acquire, own, operate, lease, sell, trade and otherwise deal with the Property, and any personal property of the Association, as may be necessary or convenient in the administration of the operation, management, maintenance, improvement and care of the Common Areas within the Property (as defined in the Declaration).

In the furtherance of the foregoing purposes, the Association shall have the power and authority to engage in any and all lawful activities that may be reasonably necessary or useful in order to accomplish any of the foregoing purposes and to do and exercise all other powers and authority now or hereafter conferred upon nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Minnesota. Such purposes and power shall include, but not be limited to the following:

- A. Maintaining, managing, and administering the affairs and property of the Association;
- B. Levying and collecting assessments from the members of the Association and using the proceeds thereof for the benefit and administration of the Property;

064754

C. Carrying insurance pertinent to the ownership, use and maintenance of the Property and any personal property of the Association (exclusive of any coverage for real property, contents and personal effects belonging to any of the members); collecting all premiums and charges for the same from the members; and using, reimbursing, or expending the proceeds for the rebuilding, repair, renovation, rehabilitation, and/or replacement of any loss or damage to any of the above Association Property, as provided in the Declaration or in the Bylaws of the Association, (the "Bylaws");

D. Contracting for and employing persons, firms, or corporations to assist in the management, operation, maintenance and administration of the Property;

E. Making and enforcing reasonable rules and regulations concerning the use and enjoyment of the Common Area;

F. In general, entering into any kind of activity, making and performing any contract and exercising all powers necessary, incidental or convenient to the administration, management, maintenance, repair, replacement and operation of the Property and to the accomplishment of any of the purposes thereof;

G. Doing anything required of or permitted to it as administrator of the Property by: (i) Minnesota law, (ii) the Declaration and/or (iii) the Bylaws of the Association;

H. Exercising such other powers which are consistent with the foregoing purposes and which are afforded to the Association by the Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation Act and any further laws amendatory thereof and/or supplementary thereto.

ARTICLE III

No Pecuniary Gain

The Association is organized as a nonprofit corporation governed by Chapter 317A of the Minnesota Statutes. The Association shall in no way, directly or indirectly, incidentally or otherwise, afford pecuniary gain to any of its members, directors, or officers nor shall any part of the net earnings of the Association in any way inure to the private benefit of any such member, director, or officer of the Association or to any private shareholder or individual within the meaning of Section 528(c)(1)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the Association shall be authorized to make reasonable allowance and payment for actual expenditures incurred or services rendered for or on behalf of the Association.

No substantial part of the activities of the Association shall constitute the carrying on of legislative lobbying or of otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Association shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office nor shall the Association engage in any transaction or carry on any other activity not permitted to be carried on by a property management association exempt from federal income tax under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE IV
